excerpts;

"I'm the guy next door; I'm the guy who barbecues with you... I'm a likable guy."

"Their faces, their screams, their terror, their pain. The smell and the sight of blood. I've done some bad things. I go to bed and dream about it. I wake up thinking about it. I can't escape it. It's with me every day. I can't get rid of the screams."

"He's very, very quiet; then he's just there. He'll get up on you and you'll never know it..."

'The killer has abducted them and filmed them in his basement as he holds them there for days, sexually assaulting them until he decides it's time to murder them on screen.'

"This is my first kill. I don't know her name; I don't give a f..."

He leaves her lying face down on the floor.'

The Chief of Police ordered the team to be given psychological counselling, stating, "they will have nightmares."

"It's like heroin. After you do the first shot you want another one. You can't stop."

'More letters he sent to investigators offered to take them on a 'Death Tour,' and offered cryptic clues; giving them the name of a town, and the murder weapon,'

"I put her in a bathtub and cut off her legs. You circumscribe the thigh with a knife until you hit hard tissue you can't cut, and then you twist and tear it off like a turkey leg."
