Blaze of Glory (A Ben Bridges Western) Ben Bridges

A LOW-PRICED, FULL-LENGTH WESTERN FROM THIRTEEN-TIME AMAZON NUMBER ONE BESTSELLING AUTHOR BEN BRIDGES!!

Ben Crawford was one of the best lawmen in the business, and when a man named Kane offered him a hundred bucks a month to keep the peace in the fresh, raw town he'd just founded, it sounded exactly like the challenge he'd been looking for. So he took the job ... and spent the next twelve years just waiting for something to happen. It never did.

In fact, life in Kane's Crossing, New Mexico, grew so damn' quiet that the townsfolk eventually decided they didn't really need a lawman at all. But fate had other ideas, because all hell was destined to break loose on Ben's last day in office. The only question now was, would an older, slower Ben survive it all, or go out in a blaze of glory?

"A superb, natural story-teller," -- Twentieth Century Western Writers

"Ben Bridges is arguably the best western writer Britain has ever produced," -- Steve Hayes, author of Viva Gringo!
