Mud and Sand David Ray

Sephard is a series of caves in southern Mexico where Muslims and Jews have lived together harmoniously for hundreds of years. They are the descendants of people who fled Spain's Inquisition from 1492. The author visited these caves many years ago after connecting with the Sephard Visitation Project. While there, he heard the most phenomenal story of how the community within these caves came to be. It is full of piracy, betrayal, revenge, and wisdom.
