Jesus was a great teacher. He always used examples of activities the people knew about in order to teach them what He wanted them to know. When Jesus talked about the "Kingdom of God," he used stories of people doing ordinary things to show His listeners what it meant to live in God's kingdom.

Included in "Stories of the Kingdom" are four stories that will help children know how to live in God's kingdom:

The Sower (hearing God's word and putting it into action),

The Good Samaritan (loving your neighbor),

The Lost Sheep (our importance to God), and

The Forgiving Father (God's unconditional love for us).
