From their origins in a barren realm, shadow-waves of the Tide writhe through the cracks in reality, hungry to rake the rich minds of humankind of their ethereal energies. In the novella "Parasite," one of the First Four waves, Roam, wanders newly awoken from isolated slumber into the presence of a woman whose power ignites his passion, even as it repels him for fear of the damage he could cause her, paranormal predator he knows himself to be. The woman, Rachel, struggles with her own fate as well as her attraction to this stranger, for the pain she could bring him, as she has brought others. Other tales follow which offer additional perspectives on the Tide, including documents from the archives of the Brightened, a secret lineage of humans who seek to understand shadow-waves, and if necessary, oppose them. There is also one man caught in between, in the gray between dark and light, whose abilities may shift the conflict in ways few can predict, and even fewer escape unscathed.
