English in Films is a series of collections of study packets for English as a Second Language students and teachers. This is Volume 5, presenting study materials for five Disney movies--Aladdin, Bambi, Cinderella, The Little Mermaid & Pocahontas. They are designed for beginning and intermediate students, each with a version for both. They were produced by Jon Michael Miller, a veteran ESL teacher for use with his own students. They divide the films into 15-minute sections and have exercises for Vocabulary Development, Listening, Discussion, Writing and Testing. Answers are included. Teachers may copy the materials for non-commercial classroom use but not for commercial purposes.
