Gone with the Wind (MAXNotes Literature Guides) Gail Rae
REA's MAXnotes for Margaret Mitchell's Gone with the Wind

MAXnotes offer a fresh look at masterpieces of literature, presented in a lively and interesting fashion. Written by literary experts who currently teach the subject, MAXnotes will enhance your understanding and enjoyment of the work. MAXnotes are designed to stimulate independent thought about the literary work by raising various issues and thought-provoking ideas and questions.

MAXnotes cover the essentials of what one should know about each work, including an overall summary, character lists, an explanation and discussion of the plot, the work's historical context, illustrations to convey the mood of the work, and a biography of the author. Each chapter is individually summarized and analyzed, and has study questions and answers.

Jamie Norman:

As a college student exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher asked them to go to the library as well as to make summary for some reserve, they are complained. Just small students that has reading's soul or real their hobby. They just do what the educator want, like asked to go to the library. They go to at this time there but nothing reading critically. Any students feel that studying is not important, boring along with can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is to get complicated. Book is very important to suit your needs. As we know that on this period, many ways to get whatever you want. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Gone with the Wind (MAXNotes Literature Guides) can make you experience more interested to read.
