Lesbian Romance

It would be accurate to say that Jess is reeling from the breakup of her relationship with Darin. After all, it was only 45 minutes ago. Unfortunately, it would also be accurate to say that she ran out and left Darin at the altar. Now she's holed up in a diner, trying to drown her troubles in bad coffee so she doesn't have to figure out what to do next. And that's when she runs into Sky - a waitress with a wicked sense of humor and a no-nonsense attitude. Also, Sky happens to be the most beautiful woman Jess has ever seen in her life.

There are two ways to go in life when your parents are hippies who name you Sky, and Sky wasn't about to go the hippie route herself. She's hasn't taken shit from anyone since she was a kid, and she stopped believing sob stories in her teens. People take care of themselves, or don't. Not her problem.

But whether Sky wants to admit it or not, there's something missing in her life, and whether or not this sobbing girl in front of her is a spoiled little rich girl...she may be the one to make Sky's heart turn over.
