Rising Sun: A Novel Michael Crichton

From the author of Jurassic Park, Timeline, and Sphere comes this riveting thriller of corporate intrigue and cutthroat competition between American and Japanese business interests.

#1 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER

“As well built a thrill machine as a suspense novel can be.”—The New York Times Book Review

On the forty-fifth floor of the Nakamoto tower in downtown Los Angeles—the new American headquarters of the immense Japanese conglomerate—a grand opening celebration is in full swing.

On the forty-sixth floor, in an empty conference room, the corpse of a beautiful young woman is discovered.

The investigation immediately becomes a headlong chase through a twisting maze of industrial intrigue, a no-holds-barred conflict in which control of a vital American technology is the fiercely coveted prize—and in which the Japanese saying “Business is war” takes on a terrifying reality.

“A grand maze of plot twists . . . Crichton’s gift for spinning a timely yarn is going to be enough, once again, to serve a current tenant of the bestseller list with an eviction notice.”—New York Daily News

“The action in Rising Sun unfolds at a breathless pace.”—Business Week

Alice Billups:

As a university student exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher requested them to go to the library or to make summary for some guide, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's spirit or real their passion. They just do what the educator want, like asked to the library. They go to at this time there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that looking at is not important, boring and also can't see colorful photos on there. Yeah, it is for being complicated. Book is very important to suit your needs. As we know that on this period of time, many ways to get whatever we really wish for. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Rising Sun: A Novel can make you experience more interested to read.
