Make a wish.

Kat can't help wishing there was more to life than this. What happened to her dream job?
What happened with Nathan?

Summer is wondering where her life is going too... battling the developers of a controversial housing estate and working out why boyfriend Rob is increasingly distant.

When the developers win the battle and move into town, everyone's life is turned upside down.

Kat meets building site project manager Alex. She enjoys his company far too much, even though he's on the town's most hated list.

Summer meets Tom who has plenty of relationship troubles of his own, so things could get really complicated.

Soon everyone is keeping secrets, lives change and hearts are broken. Is everything falling apart, or does life just work in mysterious ways?
