"The Little Yellow Bus" is a unique three-part educational children's book. Part one is a story with hidden pictures about various vehicles traveling to a town on different days of the week. On each day of the story, children can learn about two different topics including time, money, shapes, weather, parts of the body, letters, numbers, colors, clothes, various foods, and word recognition. Part two of the book is made up of stimulating activities for children to try and includes simple sheet music showing how to play "The Little Yellow Bus" song. Part three has informative lessons that reinforce the educational topics that children read about in part one of the book. The book also includes pages of over 300 sight words for children learning how to read. This book is also available in Spanish. The Spanish version is called "El Pequeño Autobús Amarillo".
