Princeton Review

Stand out from the med school application crowd with an essay that makes a statement.

Gaining admission to a top medical school requires more than "just" a stellar MCAT score and an excellent GPA. You'll also need to nail your personal statement. In this book, you'll find the help you need to do just that:

- 45 real essays written by 39 unique future doctors, along with each applicant's test scores, GPA, and admissions profile
- An overview of med school admissions and financial aid, including a breakdown of the "anatomy" of the application
- Interviews with admissions officers who have read thousands of application essays

This fourth edition of Medical School Essays that Made a Difference includes application essays from students who enrolled at the following schools:
