Our concern for loved ones does not end with their deaths. On the contrary, our concern often escalates to unimaginable heights.

What we desperately want is assurance regarding our loved ones' whereabouts. Our deep grief leads us to search for answers about what really happens when we die.

QUIT KISSING MY ASHES is an inspirational story written by a mother who was devastated beyond description when her only son died as the result of an auto accident.

Kyle wasted little time, though, in coming to his parents' aid. His manipulation of the earthly plane and his hundreds of escapades from the spirit world are truly mind-boggling. Whether with the help of the internationally-acclaimed psychic medium John Edward, or by himself, Kyle cleverly makes his presence known in many different ways.

Overwhelming and unforeseen events unfold to orchestrate a script that tells a beautiful story. The interplay of people of fame and notoriety will truly amaze you.

By accompanying Kyle's family on this eye-opening journey, you will accelerate your own path through the darkness and into the light.

John Edward quoted, "A MUST-READ for any parent dealing with the loss of a child."

If you are skeptical of after-death communication this book will let you KNOW that death is a beginning, not an end. You will KNOW that your loved ones can still be involved in your life, and you will learn how your loved ones can communicate with you.

"Without a doubt, this book proves there is life after death." Mary Jo McCabe, author and psychic medium who has appeared with John Edward.
