The Private Garden Karen Lewis, Valerie Hariis

The last thing Vivien Hall expects when she visits the private garden is to be transported back in time to the nineteen-forties—in the midst of an air raid, to boot. While there, she meets a captivating Air Force Officer. They have an erotic encounter. But as soon as Vivien falls asleep she finds herself back in the twenty-first century again. Her subsequent time travels to visit her lover, and her attempts to validate his existence—her friend believes she hallucinated the whole episode—make up an erotic and romantically haunting story with supernatural undertones.
