Lucy knows there is something wrong with the psychiatric home she's been taken to. She's noticed that she seems to be the only patient there. She's noticed all of the empty rooms and the fact that every door to the outside world is locked. She's also noticed how strangely her doctor is acting. It's as if he's pushing her for information—but information about what?

Gabriel knows that all the answers are in Lucy's head, but she's refusing to find them for him. He's trying to keep calm. He's trying to give her time, so that she can discover her memories on her own. But when she starts to cause trouble he knows that there's only one thing he can do. Will Lucy survive Gabriel's desperate attempt to get the answers?
