A Chicago firefighter by day. A poet by night. This little book (my first) is a collection of romantic poems that I have written over the years. With all the violence, racial tensions, war and generally terrible news given to you on a daily basis through news channels and social media, my hope is that this book will take you away to a time when the world seemed a better place because of the way love affected you. Resonate with one of my original poems of an experience you may have had with someone special and feel again the hope that love once gave you.
