Nigh - Book 2 Marie Bilodeau

The mists have lifted, leaving behind a shattered world. Still reeling from the loss of her best friend, Alva Viola Taverner must trust the mysterious watchmaker to keep them safe.

But the road to safety is strewn with bodies and, up ahead, the faeries still thirst for human blood.

*Second installment of the serialized novel.

"The first great serialized novel of 2015" - Black Gate Magazine

"Nigh's first installment bodes simultaneously fantastic and terrifying for the balance of the novel." - The Page of Reviews

"There's a soothing, almost seductive quality to Marie's writing that lulls you into a sense of ordinariness, only to slam you with a new and rapidly changing reality that leaves you as breathless and reeling as the characters...over and over and over." - Linda Poitevin, author of the Grigori Legacy

"Bilodeau has embraced a storytelling method made popular by Charles Dickens, Armistead Maupin and Stephen King but she's given it new life and an incredible sense of urgency." - Jamieson Wolf, bestselling author
