She can submit to the man. But can she submit to the love?

Being an erotica author, Coley could turn words into a lusty scene in seconds. She could write about sex but was finding it difficult to write about love. She just couldn't find the hero for her book... or in real life, for that matter. She needed to find the passion to write again. She needed to find passion—period.

With one kiss, Coley discovers that a long time friend may be the man she had always been looking for. Vance was strong, sexy, loving and extremely alpha. Coley also knew he lived a lifestyle of Domestic Discipline. He loved, he led, and he spanked his women.

Had she found her real life hero? Could Coley surrender to his love? Was it possible to submit to his Traditional Terms?
