Hates Us All Carl Ludin

The author wrote this short novel in homage to Hank Moody on Californication. It is an attempt to justify Hank's literary prestige on the show. However, the author quickly realized that his own experience did not match that of the character and moved the story to his city, the city of Atlanta. This book takes you on a journey of Atlanta through the eyes of a young professional struggling to find love and meaning in his life. It is an attempt to write a book in the style described on the show, "Nihilism based in Romanticism". In a world where love is prominent in every interaction, what is the meaning of love?
