There are "good things" and then there are "God things." A good thing is something we do in the name of God, but in reality God had little to do with it. Many of us waste our lives doing good things (or not-so-good things), when we should be doing God things. How do we accomplish God things in our lives? Author Mike Palompo contends that it begins with a spiritual transformation--we become people who hear the voice of God. (Which, by the way, is in itself a God thing!)
