If you have built a strong marriage, you have a wonderful opportunity to pass on to other couples what God has given you. Part of the successful Saving Your Marriage Before It Starts program, The Marriage Mentor Manual shows experienced couples how they can mentor newlyweds during their first year of marriage. 'Marriage mentoring can be a significant help to building a lifelong marriage,' say Les and Leslie Parrott. 'We have seen hundred of couples strengthen their new marriages through mentoring relationships and know firsthand how beneficial this relationship can be.' The Marriage Mentor Manual shows you--Who are good candidates for mentoring relationships - How to find and establish mentoring relationships - How to be effective mentors and practice the art of active listening - When to refer a troubled couple to a professional counselor - What mentoring can do for you -- With a year's worth of guidelines, exercises, and questionnaires, The Marriage Mentor Manual will help you encourage and strengthen couples who are just starting out--and improve your own marriage in the process.
