1501 PARCHER PLACE is love inspired romantic story about a young novelist, Trish Morgan, who moves back to her hometown with her six-year-old son, Josh, after separating from her husband. A longtime friend of hers left her his home along with a substantial inheritance. But once she moves into the old mansion at 1501 Parcher Place, Trish soon learns that they aren't the only occupants of the old mansion. There are paranormal happenings that can't be explained. She suspects the ghosts of previous occupants still walk the halls.

Trish has a difficult time establishing a new family life for she and her son. But once she discovers an old journal in the attic she starts to uncover the mystery of Robert Parcher's untimely death years earlier and the love that inspired him not to pass on to the other side. She also learns that love never dies, not even in death.
