From Book 1: Keia is planning to spend the rest of her life with her new fiancé Diesel. He is everything that a woman would want; handsome, successful, loyal, respectful and most of all, he treats Keia like the queen that she is. Everything is fine until she gets an unwanted visitor from her past. While out partying one night, she receives a text that could change the course of her life forever. Keia turns to her faithful friend and confidant Cass for her some much needed relationship advice that has proven valuable in the past only to find out that Cass has gotten herself into a bit of a sticky situation and is in need of her own resolution. After much resistance Keia gives into temptation and finds herself in a dangerous love triangle between her fiancé... and her husband! Stay tuned as these friends struggle to keep their businesses in-tact, their relationships on track and not get caught up in this game that we call life.
