I am You, You are Me Anu French

'I am You, You are Me' celebrates a message of oneness and unity. The book's underlying theme is that we are all more similar than we are different. It's a great book for parents, grandparents, educators and older siblings to read to young children and simple enough to be a learning-to-read book. It helps children early on, to absorb the awareness of how we are all connected to each other, connected to our earth, our joy, our love, our peace and light. Through simple colorful illustrations and words, the book reminds us that we can live from a pure place of believing and knowing that I am you and you are me.
