Men With Egos is a story about four African American males- Mark, Jared, Eli and Chike who each deal with life and love differently. Mark Kennedy owns a computer company, and hopes for a healthy relationship with his father. Jared Simon, is a project manager, and struggling with his childhood memories of his verbally abusive mother who tore the family apart. Eli Marshall is the proud owner of Unity Foods. He doesn't believe that there is a woman alive to make him commit to. Chike is Jamaican and African American, he owns a bank and comes from a wealthy family, with strong family values. He is involved with a woman that his family would not approve of.
