The Upside of Being Let Down (new adult romance) London Casey, Ana W. Fawkes, Karolyn James AJ –

Kicked out of college, kicked out of my apartment...and now, because I tried to get help from my sister, kicked out of the club. It's the middle of the night and I'm literally in the gutter. I have no one in the world...except him. The smoking hot guy who just offered me a place to stay...no strings.

Bryan –

I've got a plan. A career. The last thing I need is to complicate my life by inviting a girl I just met to crash on my couch. But every time I look into her eyes, I get lost...and as I lie awake, knowing she's in the next room, I can't stop thinking about her...

*

Scarred by her past, AJ has refused help from everyone she's ever met. But Bryan's going to save her...whether she likes it or not. As they become more than friends, things get complicated...and some shocking revelations about their past makes it even harder. Can AJ let down her defenses long enough to let Bryan in for good? Or will she turn away from the only man who can save her from herself?
