This greatly expanded version reveals Bonhoeffer's daily concerns and the enormous warmth and humanity of the young German pastor who was executed by the Nazis in 1945 for his part in the "officer's plot." While omitting nothing found in the earlier editions, this book includes references to Bonhoeffer's fiancée, excerpts from their correspondence, and letters from his parents, brothers, sisters, and other relatives, legal papers referring to his trial, and a new introduction by his close friend Eberhard Bethge.
