Red Kim Jones

Red is living life in the spotlight, a place she always dreamed of. Stripping was a way of escaping from her past, and it was something she was well-known for. But, Red's fight to remain queen isn't the only battle she's facing. And when the war against her addiction is won, it's not in her favor.

Facing three to five years in a federal penitentiary, Red feels like her life is over. But, just like he always does, Luke Carmical, her childhood best friend, comes to the rescue. Only this time, he's brought Devil's Renegades Regg with him. Having no other option, Red is forced to spend the next ninety days in a place she's never been and in the care of a man she hardly knows.

Spending three months of her life on a secluded farm turns out to be a lot more than Red bargained for. Because, it's there that Regg stands by her side through endless hours of withdrawal, constant mood swings and restless pacing. It's there that the MC family reminds her of their motto: love, loyalty and respect. And it's there she learns that hitting rock bottom, doesn't keep you from falling...in love.
