The Scouse narco cartel is awaiting The Bright Future, a sea-going vessel containing a veritable mountain of Colombian cocaine.

The plan is to rake in the biggest off-off money spinner that the Liverpool underworld has ever seen in its unglorious history.

A dirty low-life rat in the ranks has compromised the shipment by co-operating with an elaborate police surveillance operation orchestrated by SOCA.

The treacherous grass needs weeding out and his ultimate nemesis is to end up on the cartel's hit-list before the next freighter Pot Of Gold, containing a massive cargo of devil dust, can be intercepted.

A short story by Harry Crooks, the author of Cracking Up: War Stories Of A Drug Thug.
