Haze is a man on a mission. It was never his plan to be a gladiator, but plans change. When Harvesters steal his wife he tracks them down. It takes a year, all the money he has and most of his soul, but Silk is worth it. When he finds her she's a slave, fighting for her life in the worst arena in space. His search is over, but his problems are just beginning. Haze has to face gigantic killers hardened by battle, feral beasts trained to stalk gladiators, weaponized weather and the most dangerous enemy of all - his wife.

Silk is a deadly fighter, so it's too bad she doesn't remember him...

Memory stripped and struggling to survive she has no interest in Haze. The idiot claiming to be her husband is just another target. One more body standing between her and freedom, but not for long. She'll take down anything and anyone she has to.

Can Haze live long enough to win Silk's love? Unlikely. It's the end of the season and this is their last day in the arena. They're about to enter the Carnival of Death, which leaves a single survivor. One of them has to die.

One Love. One Arena. One Day.
