More than 900 years ago, two unidentified lives died in an obscure mine tunnel in northwest Mexico. One of them buried the other up, and then the committed suicide in the grave. In 1930, a teenage girl found their skeleton. The girl took down two skulls and save them in a cardboard box. In 1999, they are shown in the public, therefore, a epic archaeological exploration begins. The author saves and studies these skulls, one of which is called the ""star child skull"".
